

Kingsville Baptist Church

Church Clerk – Job Description

Position Summary

The Church Clerk is an elected officer of Kingsville Baptist Church responsible for maintaining accurate and complete records of the church's official actions. The Clerk serves the church by recording business proceedings, maintaining membership and historical records, and ensuring communication with the wider Baptist association and convention.

Biblical Qualifications

The Clerk must:

- Be a born-again, baptized believer in Jesus Christ.
- Be a member of Kingsville Baptist Church in good standing.
- Demonstrate integrity, accuracy, and discretion in handling records.
- Be organized and detail-oriented.
- Be committed to the Baptist Faith & Message, the church covenant, and the mission of Kingsville Baptist Church.
- Be committed to serving in harmony with the Constitution and Bylaws of Kingsville Baptist Church.

Core Responsibilities

1. Record Keeping & Minutes

- Record accurate minutes of all church business meetings, including:
 - Exact wording of motions.
 - Names of members making motions.
 - Results of the votes taken.
- Summarize essential discussion points without personal commentary.
- Preserve minutes as both legal and historical documents that support church actions.

2. Membership Records

- Maintain an accurate roll of members, including admissions, dismissions, baptisms, deaths, and erasures.
- Update both digital and physical membership records on a regular basis.
- Issue letters of dismissal as authorized by the church.

3. Official Correspondence

- Handle communication with other churches regarding membership transfers.
- Collaborate with the Pastor and Treasurer to prepare and submit the Annual Church Profile (ACP) to the Missouri Baptist Convention and association.
- Maintain copies of all reports and correspondence in church archives.

4. Historical Records

- Preserve permanent church records in cooperation with the history committee.
- Provide information for annual reports, historical summaries, and special church anniversaries.

5. Church Communication

- Post the annual Nominating Committee report and other notices as directed.
- Give proper notice of special business meetings as required by the Bylaws.
- Support church administration by sharing accurate information with members, leaders, and committees when appropriate.

Accountability & Support

- The Clerk is accountable to the church body and works closely with the Pastor, Deacons, and committees as needed.
- The Clerk will provide reports and records as requested by church members or committees.
- An annual written evaluation will be conducted following the Clerk Evaluation & Accountability Framework, summarizing achievements, challenges, and goals for the coming year.
- The Clerk must successfully complete a background check prior to serving and maintain compliance with the church's safety and confidentiality policies.

Expectations for Character & Lifestyle

- Maintain a daily walk with Christ, modeling personal devotion, prayer, and holiness.
- Live above reproach, demonstrating integrity, impartiality, and confidentiality in handling church records.
- Demonstrate humility, accountability, and a cooperative spirit in working with church leadership.
- Be dependable, organized, and timely in completing assigned duties.

- Model a Christ-like lifestyle consistent with the church covenant and the mission of Kingsville Baptist Church.

Terms of Service

The Church Clerk is elected annually by the congregation and serves until reelection or replacement in accordance with the Constitution & Bylaws.
