

Kingsville Baptist Church

Treasurer – Job Description

Position Summary

The Treasurer is an elected officer of Kingsville Baptist Church responsible for receiving, preserving, and disbursing all church funds as authorized, while keeping accurate and transparent financial records. The Treasurer ensures compliance with financial reporting obligations and provides regular reports to the church.

Biblical Qualifications

The Treasurer must:

- Be a born-again, baptized believer in Jesus Christ.
- Be a member of Kingsville Baptist Church in good standing.
- Demonstrate integrity, confidentiality, and faithfulness in handling church finances.
- Possess organizational and basic accounting/bookkeeping skills.
- Be willing to work cooperatively with the Stewardship Committee, Personnel Committee, and external auditors when necessary.
- Be committed to serving in harmony with the Constitution and Bylaws of Kingsville Baptist Church.

Core Responsibilities

1. Receiving & Disbursing Funds

- Faithfully steward all church funds in accordance with approved budgets and policies.
- Receive all funds contributed to the church and deposit them in the church's designated bank account(s).
- Disburse funds only on proper vouchers/authorization (e.g., approved budget, committee authorization).
- Issue checks and electronic payments as needed.
- Oversee online giving.
- Oversee church credit and debit cards and manage issuance as authorized by the church.

2. Record Keeping & Reporting

- Maintain accurate, itemized records of all receipts and disbursements.
- Render a monthly report of all transactions to the church at its regular business meeting.
- Prepare annual financial summaries for review and audit by the church.

3. Payroll & Tax Responsibilities

- Manage payroll for paid staff, including:
 - Issuing W-2s and 1099s as required.
 - Withholding and remitting payroll taxes (if applicable).
 - Coordinating with the Finance Committee on salaries/benefits.
- Ensure church compliance with state and federal tax reporting requirements.
(Note: Some churches outsource payroll and taxes. If this occurs, the Treasurer serves as the liaison with the service provider.)
- Review payroll and tax processes annually to ensure continued compliance and accuracy.

4. Cooperation with Committees

- Collaborate with the Finance Committee to prepare the annual budget.
- Provide financial reports and data to committees, pastor(s), and deacons as needed.
- Support the Finance Committee with compensation documentation for staff.

5. Safeguarding Church Assets

- Ensure that proper procedures are followed for handling cash and offerings (multiple counters, secure deposits, etc.).
- Maintain church accounts and financial records in a secure and organized fashion.
- Ensure that both digital and physical records are backed up and preserved in accordance with established policies.

6. Auditing & Accountability

- Provide records for the annual audit/review (by an internal committee or an external accountant).
- Be bonded at church expense, as required by the bylaws.
- Maintain transparency and accountability to the church membership.

- The Treasurer must successfully complete a background check prior to serving and maintain compliance with the church's safety and security policies.

Accountability & Support

- The Treasurer is accountable to the church body and works closely with the Pastor(s), Deacons, and Finance Committee.
- Financial policies and reports will be reviewed annually by the Finance Committee.
- An annual written evaluation will be conducted following the Treasurer Evaluation & Accountability Framework, summarizing achievements, challenges, and goals for the coming year.

Expectations for Character & Lifestyle

- Live above reproach, demonstrating honesty and discretion in financial dealings.
- Model Christian stewardship through personal giving and example.
- Be dependable, consistent, and timely in carrying out financial duties.
- Maintain a daily walk with Christ, modeling personal devotion, prayer, and a life of holiness.

Terms of Service

The Treasurer is elected annually by the congregation and serves until reelection or replacement in accordance with the Constitution & Bylaws.
